NEW MEXICO'S PREMIER TOUR CO.

Travel for Good

Our mission is to create an inspirational travel experience that elevates your senses
creating a spiritual encounter with New Mexico.

Experience a road less traveled on our specialty-designed tour itineraries that explore Taos, Santa Fe, Albuquerque, and Chaco Canyon regions and beyond.

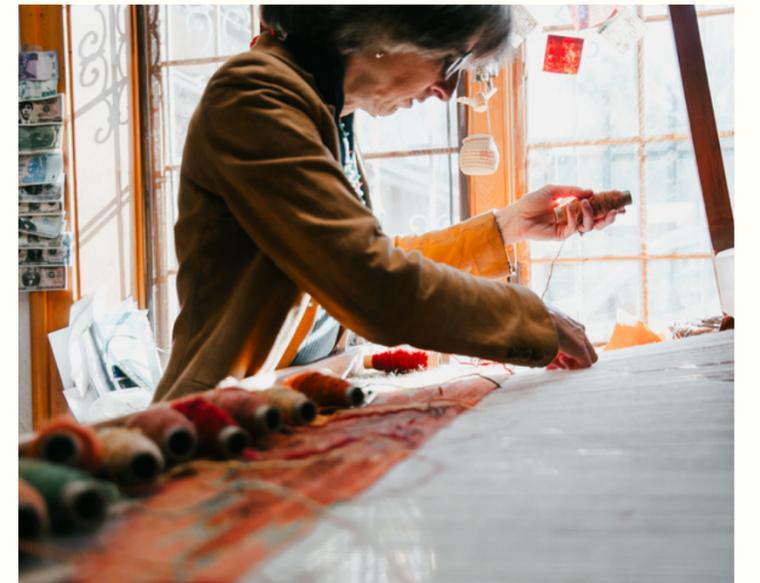

Choose from an active outdoor expedition, an e-bike tour, an insider's walking tour, a hands-on culinary immersion, or a roving glamping adventure; either way, you're guaranteed to find a travel program that thoughtfully anticipates your needs and feeds your soul.

PEOPLE.

H.I. is passionate about our long-lasting relationships with our local partners.

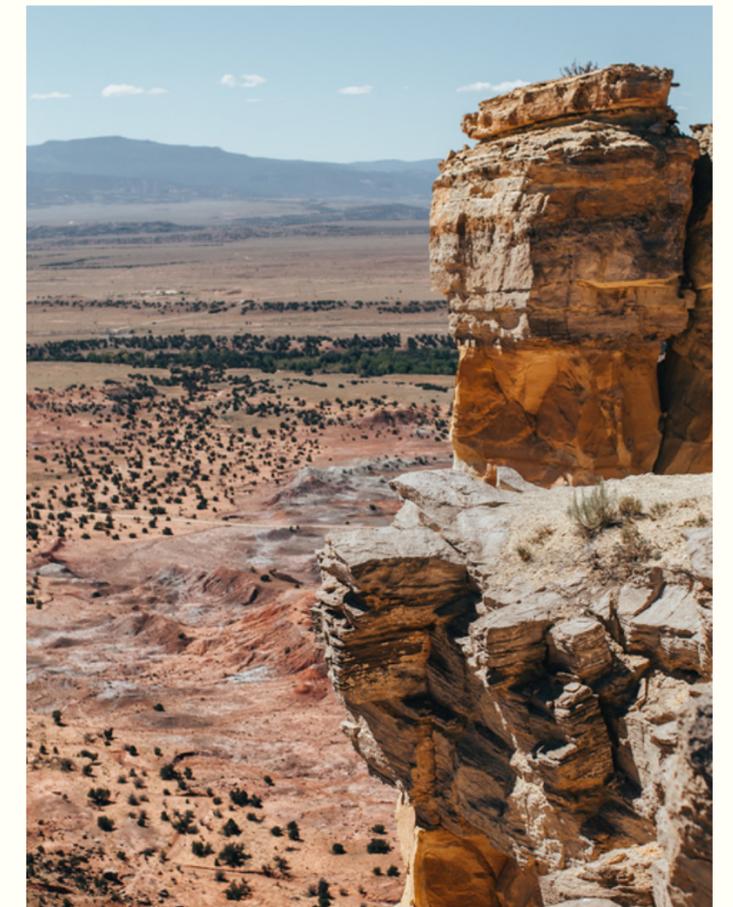

Our "Local Partners" embody the authentic quality woven into the fabric of our trip design. We invite our guests to meet locals, visit their homes or studios, and become part of the story on tour.

EARTH.

Each of our Expert Guides holds a "Leave No Trace" Certificate that upholds the mindfulness of reverence, respect and minimal impact on the places we trek.

We work with our land management areas to ensure integrity and preservation as stewards of the land. Our intent is to educate, elevate and explore our National Monuments, Parks and UNESCO Heritage Sites with our guests through engaging a deeper connection to each place visited.

HERITAGE & DIVERSITY.

At H.I., we are storytellers. We are committed to partnering and celebrating our New Mexico Pueblos, Hispanic communities and local artisans by highlighting their voices and talents on our tours.

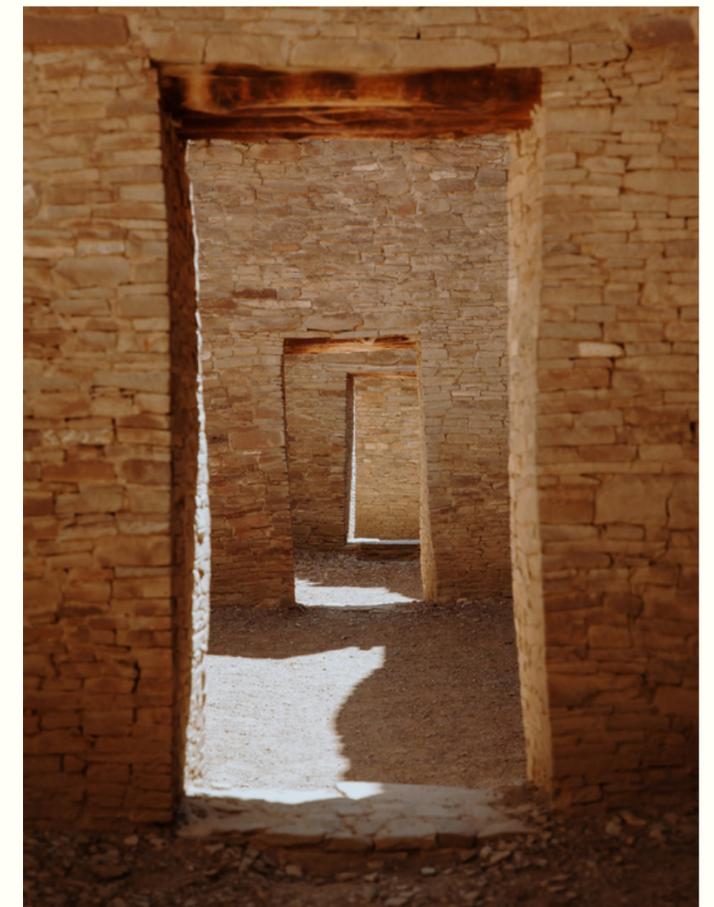

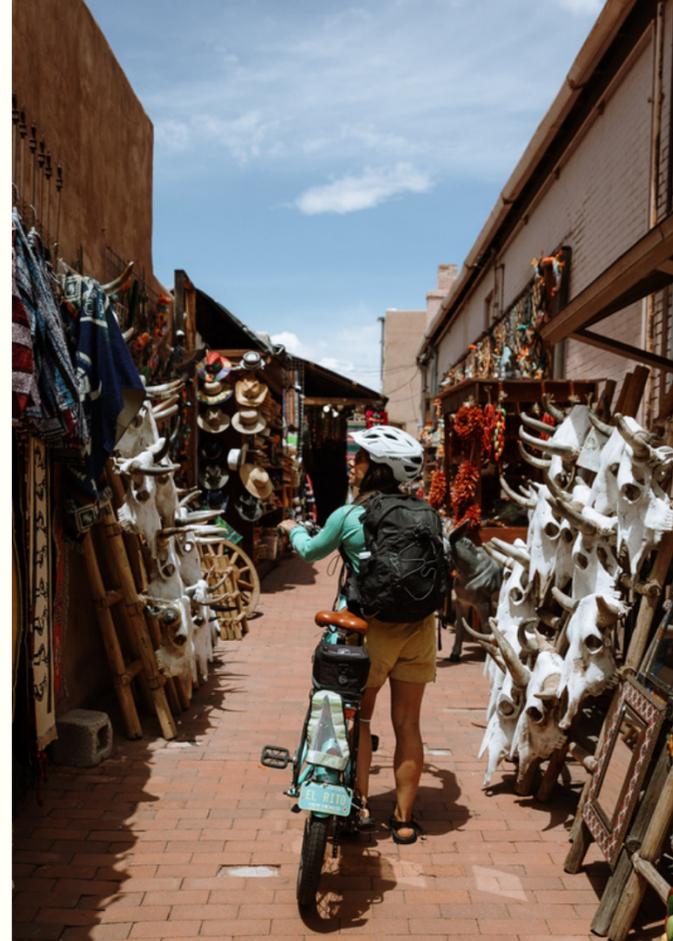

Travel can be a positive vessel that supports local communities through partnerships. We aim to uncover the cultural crossroads imprinted throughout time instilling authenticity and connection to bridge the gaps of history and modernity. Travel provokes curiosity and provides the opportunity to learn more about ourselves as we experience other cultures and landscapes.

CREATIVITY.

Travel is a tool for transformation, and there is no place like New Mexico to recalibrate, unplug, elevate and ground. We intimately know our culture, adventure, and wild places of New Mexico, and how important it is to go beyond the beaten path.

Our trip design is a woven tapestry of storytelling, adventure, spice and discovering the back roads and topography in the different destinations you are touring with us. Each tour we have curated in our different regions is a work of art.

FEMALE OWNED + OPERATED.

Heritage Inspirations Tour Company is Angelisa Murray's love letter to New Mexico. This female-owned and operated business is a reflection of her passion to imbue, honor, and celebrate what makes New Mexico a destination to pursue and extensively travel around.

"Our tours are passionate about unveiling the living cultural threads that make our state the foreign country of the U.S...our approach is to design a unique and unforgettable encounter that elevates the soul, and we are committed to offering an educational narrative, an invitation to explore our cultural gems, diverse peoples, and breathtaking landscapes." We are honored to be celebrating our ninth year of operation run by a woman who has spent over 20 years tour guiding and developing in her home, the Land of Enchantment.
